4.7 Interpolation

Rating information for a limit that is between two limits for which amount of insurance relativities are shown in the state pages can be developed by interpolation. The following is an example of interpolation:

Step 1 -- The desired limit is $47,000. The nearest amount of insurance relativities shown in the state pages are 2.112 for $50,000 and 1.982 for $45,000. To determine the per $1,000 amount of insurance relativity, subtract 1.982 from 2.112 and divide by 5.

$$(2.112 - 1.982) \div 5 = .026$$

Step 2 -- Multiply the per $1,000 amount of insurance relativity by 2. ($47,000 - $45,000 = $2,000.)

$$.026 \times 2 = .052$$

Step 3 -- Add the result of Step 2 to the amount of insurance relativity for $45,000. The amount of insurance relativity for the $47,000 limit is 2.034.

$$.052 + 1.982 = 2.034$$

The relativities shown in this example are for illustrative purposes only and do not necessarily reflect the relativities shown in the state pages.

RULE 5 -- PREMIUM DETERMINATION

5.1 Calculation Of Premium

As described under Rule 3, forms DP 0001, DP 0002 and DP 0003 provide coverage for Fire and Other Perils.

For forms DP 0001, DP 0002, and DP 0003, a policy must include Coverage A and may include Coverage C (refer to Rules 3.5.1 and 3.5.2).

In order to calculate the policy premium, it is necessary to determine whether the policy includes Coverage A only or both Coverages A and C. For each of the following exposures that apply, a separate premium must be calculated using the rating procedure shown below:

- Coverage A - Fire
- Coverage A - Other Perils
- Coverage C - Fire
- Coverage C - Other Perils

Step 1 -- Use the following procedure to determine the basic premium for Coverage A - Fire, Coverage A - Other Perils, Coverage C - Fire, and Coverage C - Other Perils, as applicable, based on the pertinent amount of Coverage A or Coverage C. The applicable base amounts and relativities are shown in the state pages labeled Basic Rating Information and the definitions for rating zones, protection, construction, and number of families are shown in the Definitions section of this manual.

- a. Multiply the pertinent base amount for the applicable rating zone by the applicable policy form relativity.
- b. Multiply the result of Step 1.a. by the applicable occupancy relativity. Dwellings under construction are to be classified as non-owner occupied.
- c. Multiply the result of Step 1.b. by the applicable protection/construction relativity.
- d. Multiply the result of Step 1.c. by the applicable number of families relativity.
- e. Multiply the result of Step 1.d. by the applicable amount of insurance relativity and round to the nearest penny. (If the desired amount of insurance is between two limits for which amount of insurance relativities are shown, develop the applicable amount of insurance relativity by interpolation as described in Rule 4.7.)
- f. Form DP 0001: When the peril of vandalism or malicious mischief applies, calculate the applicable charge for that peril using the rating information shown in the pages for Rule 6.1 and round to the nearest penny. Add the applicable charge to the result of Step 1.e. for Coverage A – Other Perils and Coverage C – Other Perils.

BREMEN FARMERS MUTUAL INSURANCE COMPANY DWELLING PROPERTIES MANUAL

KANSAS

Step 2 – Multiply the result of Step 1 by the applicable risk characteristic factors in Rule 7. When a dwelling has a solid fuel heating device, apply the rating information for Rule 7.8 after any applicable risk characteristic factors are applied.

Step 3 -- Multiply the result of Step 2 by the pertinent factor in Rule 8 to reflect the desired deductible.

Step 4 -- Multiply the result of Step 3 by the applicable premium modification factors in Rule 9 and round to the nearest penny.

Step 5 -- Add together the applicable premiums calculated in Step 4 for Coverage A - Fire, Coverage A - Other Perils, Coverage C - Fire, and Coverage C - Other Perils.

Step 6 -- Add the result of Step 5 to the charges or credits shown in Rule 10 for any property coverage options that apply.

Step 7 -- When the Landlord's Premises-Only Liability Coverage Option applies, add the result of Step 6 to the pertinent charge calculated in Rule 11.

A policy may be issued with a single deductible amount that applies to all perils other than earthquake. (When coverage is provided for loss caused by earthquake, a separate deductible provision applies to such loss. See Rule 10.1.1 for earthquake deductibles.) The following flat deductible options are available:

When the Coverage A limit is less than $100,000, the windstorm or hail deductible must be expressed as a flat dollar amount. The deductible applicable to loss caused by all other perils (other than earthquake) is expressed as a flat dollar amount.

The following deductible options are available:

Deductible Amounts

Windstorm Or Hail – Flat Dollar	All Other Perils
$1,000	$ 500
1,500	1,000
2,000	1,500

5,000	5,000

Windstorm Or Hail - Percentage	All Other Perils
1%	$ 500
2%	1,000
5%	1,500
	2,500
	5,000

RULE 10 -- PROPERTY COVERAGE OPTIONS

10.1 Additional Perils

10.1.1 Earthquake

Earthquake coverage can be added and must apply to the same coverages and limits to which the Fire and Extended Coverage perils apply. Coverage for exterior masonry veneer is optional.

A special deductible provision applies to loss caused by earthquake. The available deductible options are 5%, 10%, 15%, 20%, and 25%. Only one earthquake deductible option can be selected for the earthquake exposures described under the premium determination instructions set forth by this rule. The deductible is a percentage of the limit that applies to Coverage A, Coverage B, or Coverage C, whichever is greatest. The deductible amount is subject to a $500 minimum for any one earthquake.

Premium Determination -- Use the procedure shown below and the applicable rating information and deductible factors shown in the state pages for this rule to determine the additional premium for this coverage. In addition, determine the applicable construction type. (Note: Coverage for Exterior Masonry Veneer is optional; refer to endorsement. Classify as "Frame" if the Exterior Masonry Veneer Exclusion applies.)

Step 1 --

- a. Multiply the applicable rate by the Coverage A limit, in thousands, shown on the declarations.
- b. Multiply the result of Step 1.a. by the applicable deductible factor.

Step 2 --

- a. Multiply the applicable rate by the Coverage C limit, in thousands, shown on the declarations.
- b. Multiply the result of Step 2.a. by the applicable deductible factor.

Step 3 -- If Coverage D has been added for form DP 0001 as described in Rule 10.7.1, multiply the applicable rate by the Coverage D limit, in thousands, shown on the declarations. If the Coverage D limit has been increased for forms DP 0002 or DP 0003 as described in Rule 10.7.2, multiply the applicable rate by the amount of increase, in thousands.

Step 4 --

- a. If Coverage B has been added for form DP 0001 as described in Rule 10.4.1, multiply the applicable rate by the Coverage B limit, in thousands, shown on the declarations. If the Coverage B limit has been increased for forms DP 0002 or DP 0003 as described in Rule 10.4.2, multiply the applicable rate by the amount of increase, in thousands.
- b. Multiply the result of Step 4.a. by the applicable deductible factor.

Step 5 -- Total the final results of Steps 1 through 4. The result is the premium charge for direct physical loss caused by earthquake.

Endorsement -- Attach endorsement DP 3512 and make an entry to show the earthquake deductible percentage that applies. When coverage is provided for exterior masonry veneer, make an entry to show that the masonry veneer exclusion does not apply.

10.1.2 Limited Theft Coverage

On-premises theft coverage can be added to policies that insure personal property in non-owner occupied dwellings. Note: Coverage does not apply to theft caused by tenants, roomers, or boarders. See form DP 3535 for further information.

A special deductible of $500 applies to the total of all such loss with higher deductible options of $1,000 and $2,500 available.

Premium Determination -- Use the procedure shown below, the rating information and factors shown in the state pages for this rule, and the applicable Coverage C - Other Perils deductible factor shown in the state pages for Rule 8.1.

Step 1 -- Multiply the applicable rate by the Limited Theft Coverage limit, in thousands, shown in the schedule of endorsement DP 3535.

Step 2 -- Multiply the result of Step 1 by the applicable deductible factor.

Endorsement -- Attach endorsement DP 3535 and make entries to show the limit and the deductible when a deductible higher than $500 applies.

10.2 Water Back Up And Sump Overflow Or Discharge -- Forms DP 0002
And DP 0003

Coverage for direct physical loss caused by water or matter present in water that backs up through sewers or drains or overflows or discharges from a sump, sump pump, or related equipment can be added. When added to a policy that includes both Coverage A and Coverage C, this coverage must apply to Coverage A and to Coverage C. Limits of $5,000, $10,000, $15,000, $20,000, and $25,000 are available.

A special deductible provision applies to the total of all such loss. The available deductible options are those shown in the state pages for Other Perils in Rule 8.1.

The Coverage A limit must be at least 80% of the building's full replacement cost in order for this option to be selected.

Premium Determination -- Use the applicable rating information shown in the state pages for this rule and the applicable Other Perils deductible factor shown in the state pages for Rule 8.1. When the policy provides coverage for:

- Coverage A only, multiply the applicable Coverage A only rate for the pertinent limit by the applicable Coverage A - Other Perils deductible factor;
- both Coverage A and Coverage C, multiply the applicable Coverage A and Coverage C rate for the pertinent limit by the applicable Coverage A - Other Perils deductible factor.

10.4.1 Coverage Added -- Form DP 0001

When the policy does not automatically include Coverage B, coverage can be provided for private structures adjacent to the covered dwelling for an additional charge. Coverage applies on a blanket basis.

Premium Determination --

Premium Determination --

Step 1 -- Use the following procedure to determine the private structure premium for Coverage B - Fire and Coverage B - Other Perils by using the Coverage A rating information for a one family, owner occupied, frame dwelling in the applicable rating zone and protection classification. The perils and deductible option must be the same for all Coverage A and Coverage B structures insured at the same location under the same policy. The applicable Coverage A base amounts and relativities are shown in the state pages labeled Basic Rating Information and the definitions for rating zones, protection, construction, and number of families are shown in the Definitions section of this manual.

OPTION

11.1 Landlord's Premises-Only Liability Coverage

When form DP 0001, DP 0002, or DP 0003 is used to insure a one, two, three, or four family rental dwelling, commercial liability coverage for the dwelling owner may be added by form GL 0605.

The liability coverage is limited to liability arising out of the ownership, maintenance, or use of a dwelling described on the declarations and operations that are necessary or incidental to such dwellings. Coverage does not apply to liability arising out of the use of the premises for non-residential purposes.

Premium Determination -- Use the procedure shown below and the applicable rating information shown in the state pages for this rule to determine the additional premium for this coverage. The Coverage L rating information reflects the basic Coverage M Per Person Sub-Limit of $1,000 shown in Rule 3.6.2.

Step 1 -- Select the Coverage L rating information for the applicable rating zone, Coverage L limit, and number of families. When Coverage P does not apply, use the applicable rating zone, Coverage L limit, and number of families rating information shown in the state pages for Rule 11.2 to reduce the applicable Coverage L rating information.

Step 2 -- When the Coverage M Per Person Sub-Limit is increased, use the applicable Coverage M rating information for the pertinent rating zone and number of families to determine the additional charge and add the additional charge to the result of Step 1.

Form -- Attach form GL 0605 and make an entry on the declarations to indicate whether the insured is an individual, a partnership or joint venture, a limited liability company, or other organization.
